Code of Conduct

As a fundraiser for Variety – the Children's Charity Victoria you agree to represent the charity with good conduct and commit to treating people fairly.

Petember 3K a Day Challenge is a fun and inclusive program with the sole purpose to raise funds for children in need. As a fundraiser and valuable member of the Petember pack, you are representing Variety – the Children's Charity and it is important that you recognise, understand and follow the below at all times.

Bullying and Harassment

Behaviour between participants, toward Variety team members and/or the community in a way that is threatening, intimidating, lewd, demeaning or abusive is against our code of conduct.

Variety Victoria is also subject to new Australian laws on cyberbullying. We have full discretion to remove bullying material and report to police, and we will act.

Intolerance and Discrimination

Variety - the Children's Charity does not tolerate any form of hate or discrimination. Variety encourages and welcomes diversity in race, ethnicity, colour, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, ability, and national origin. Don't demean, marginalise, use hateful language against, or belittle other users or groups. Respect fellow participants and the wider Variety community.

Communication

All communication via direct messages on @VarietyPetember social channels, email or phone will only be responded to between 9 – 5pm Monday - Friday. Phone inquiries to staff are limited to the Variety office number (03) 8698 3900. No communication is to be made to personal phone numbers.

Consequences

The type of action we'll take for a particular violation of these rules is determined on a case-by- case basis. We'll look at severity, whether you're a repeat offender, and other factors. Action taken can be anything from a warning for less severe offenses, all the way up to removal as a fundraiser. Threats to staff, suppliers, sponsors or participants will be reported to Victoria Police.

Reporting

We are all a part of this community, and it is up to us to keep it friendly, fun and free of negativity. If you encounter a participant not respecting the Code of Conduct and other participants, you can report them via petember@varietyvic.org.au
